PLEASE ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS (USE EXTRA PAGES IF NEEDED). THANK YOU.

- Why are you considering our school for your child?
- Please describe your child's daily and weekly activities.
- Please give a brief picture of your home and family setting.
- Does your child watch TV or videos, listen to the radio or CDs, or play computer games? If so, how much time is spent on these activities?
- What kind of experiences has your child had away from his or her parents? Briefly describe experiences including babysitters, play situations, day care, etc.
- Comment on your child: likes and dislikes, special circumstances or experiences, fears, etc.
- Please describe any known allergies, current medications or exceptional physical conditions of your child.
- Mention any prior family contact or experience with Waldorf education.
- How did you first learn about our school?

In order to thrive, private schools rely on the generosity of time and other resources from the parent community. At Potomac Crescent Waldorf School, we have several opportunities for parents to be involved in the life of our school. Please indicate which of the following areas with which you would be willing to assist should your family join the PCWS community.
